

Providers that have adopted the IHRA working definition of antisemitism

Following guidance from the Secretary of State in February 2021, we developed a provisional list of Office for Students (OfS) registered higher education providers that have adopted the IHRA working definition of antisemitism, based on publicly available information such as providers' websites. We then validated this list by contacting providers that did not appear to have publicly adopted the IHRA definition to confirm whether our information was correct.

The list of providers below is comprised of all OfS registered higher education providers that we are aware have adopted the IHRA working definition of antisemitism. If your provider is not on the list and has adopted the IHRA working definition, please contact us at edi@officeforstudents.org.uk to be added.
